

Privacy Policy

Caribbean Moving Services provides transport and relocation services both locally and internationally.

In order to carry out your move we need certain personal information from you, those accompanying you, your residence and your belongings.

Personal information made available to us will only be collected, processed and used within the framework of our work and existing laws.

What is personal information?

Personal information is information about a person such as name, address, e-mail address and telephone number that is made available to us during a visit to our website, during a survey or by phone. To meet legal requirements we will also need copies of passport, visa, car registration papers and insurance certificate.

Choice and consent

By choosing Caribbean Moving Services to perform your transport and or relocation service, you give us your explicit consent to obtain, use, hold, amend, disclose, destroy and delete data as described in this notice. Explicit consent means that you were clearly presented with the option to agree or not with the collection, use and or disclosure of personal information.

Collect, use, retention and disposal of your personal information

Personal information of our clients is collected, used, stored and only disclosed to our service providers such as freight forwarders, shipping companies, air carriers, insurance companies, agents and government agencies. Our agents are carefully selected and may use the information provided only in accordance with our instructions. Our customers personal information is kept no longer than strictly necessary or legally determined.

Access to your personal information

Our customers have the right to access, correct, remove and or block their personal information. If you have any questions, please call us at phone number 5999 767 2588 or email us at moving@cms.cw

Security and Quality of data

Caribbean Moving Services ensures that the personal information of our clients is accurate, current and complete, relevant and at all times secured against unauthorized or unlawful loss or disclosure.

Monitoring and Enforcement

The employees of Caribbean Moving services and those of external parties have been informed of our Privacy Notice.

Our customers have the right to file a complaint if he believe that we have not handled their personal data correctly.